Il melanoma cutaneo è un tumore maligno della pelle che arriva in età adulta, che all'inizio può sembrare un normale neo comune e con l'andar del tempo evolversi crescere, cambiando forma e dimensione e colore.

Il centro operativo di dermatologia di Empoli L'USL 11 mette a disposizione i suoi medici per sensibilizzare le persone a esaminarsi una volta ogni tre mesi per qualche minuto, controllando il proprio corpo "la propria pelle", per evitare che il melanoma cutaneo si possa manifestare.

In caso di neo sospetto è necessario rivolgersi al proprio medico di famiglia che potrà prescrivere una visita specialistica dermatologica. Con apposita richiesta medica l'utente potrà prenotare la visita recandosi presso gli sportelli CUP oppure telefonando al numero unico URP 05717051 dal lunedì al venerdì ore 7.30 -19.30 e il sabato dalle ore 7.30 alle ore 13.00.

Le visite vengono effettuate presso l'unità operativa di dermatologia all'ospedale "San Giuseppe" di Empoli (blocco H, III piano) e presso gli ambulatori dermatologici dell'ospedale "Santa Verdiana" di Castelfiorentino, dell'ospedale "Degli Infermi" di San Miniato e del distretto socio-sanitario di Santa Croce sull'Arno .
